Wycombe pay the penalty of lost opportunities

Sports Mail Special Report

VISITING the lowly-placed Barking team which scored a sensational mid-week win against Tooting, Wycombe Wanderers played some handsome attacking football in an effort to consolidate Worley and their Isthmian League leadership. Bates showed much better form, but the goals would not come, many chances being missed in a goalless first half.

Referee: P R Pyman.

smoothly, Wycombe began impressively, and the Barking dazzling dribbles and Bates defence—flapping under the strain—nearly presented visitors with an opening goal. goalkeeper Smith had to dive to smother a dangerous back pass.

When Barking settled down they began to make the Wycombe defence look a little casual, rugged looking centre forward Oliver going pasti send two Bartholomew menacing centres into the goalmouth.

MISSED A SITTER

save at full stretch.

funnelled through the centre. failed to centre.

It was a game of fluffed Showing much more pep in Bates—after dribbling through tain at times as the home for-

Barking: Smith; Winship, Leaver: the defence—failed to connect Webster, Sproul, Batten; Hammond. properly and shot wide. Al-Turner, Oliver, Lewis, Southgate. Wycombe Wanderers: Brown; Beck, most immediately Worley lan-Wycombe Moring; Thomas, Bartholomew, ded a powerful shot on the Winning. Truett; Worley, Trott, Bates, Fryer, home bar, Wanderers improved The Switching the ball about dramatically with Worley finding his touch at last with some showing much better form.

NEAR THING

Fryer shot wide when well placed and Wycombe looked well worth a goal but no-one was able to score.

A slick move between Worley, Fryer and Bates ended with Barking just scrambling the ball away.

Half - time: Barking Wycombe Wanderers 0.

Wanderers paid the penalty for wasting their opportunities within six minutes of the re-From the first of these Turner start. Tiny RON SOUTHGATE, missed a sitter, Brown tele-Barking's left winger burst bescoping out a leg to make a tween Bartholomew and Brown to score a fine opportunist goal.

When Len Worley did receive Badly shaken Wycombe, desthe ball in the clear Barking perately needed the tonic of a stopped him easily. At this score, were still far from stage there was little threat beaten. Venturing all over the from either Wycombe winger forward line. Fryer chased and most of the attacks were a pass from Bates and just

Turner should have attack, Barking made tracks for scored for Barking and then goal and Brown looked uncer-(ward bustled around him.

But he did save Wycombe on one occasion after Oliver had cut down the wing and right through the defence.

SAVED THE MATCH

Seeking more punch, Wycombe moved Atkins into the middle but it was Truett, who provided it-goalkeeper Smith making the save of the match. An inspired dribble by Bates which took him careering past four Barking defenders ended with a lucky deflection for the home team.

A great 76min, solo goal by OLIVER seemed to finish Wycombe's slender hopes of men Wycombe still fought on, and Atkins drove a terrific free-kick into the roof of the Barking net with five minutes to go.

To make matters worse Wycom belost inside forward Cliff Trott, bleading bady! from a head wound.

RESULT: BARKING WYCOMBE